Overview

There is a wide range of disability-related financial support, including benefits, payments, grants and concessions.

Some benefits you might get (/financial-help-disabled/disability-and-sickness-benefits) are:

- Universal Credit

- Personal Independence Payment (PIP) or Disability Living Allowance (DLA)
- Attendance Allowance
- New Style Employment and Support Allowance (ESA)

Depending on your circumstances, you might also be able to get:

- Industrial Injuries Benefit (/industrial-injuries-disablement-benefit) if you're disabled as a result of work
- Constant Attendance Allowance (/constant-attendance-allowance) if you need daily care and attention because of a disability

> This guide is also available in Welsh (Cymraeg) (/help-ariannol-budd-daliadau).

Vehicles and transport

If you're disabled you can apply for the following:

- exemption from paying vehicle tax (/financial-help-disabled/vehicles-and-transport)
- parking benefits - Blue Badge (/apply-blue-badge)
- disabled persons bus pass or Disabled Persons Railcard (http://www.disabledpersons-railcard.co.uk/)
- help to buy or lease a car from the Motability Scheme (https://www.motability.co.uk)

Home and housing

If you've been assessed by your local council as needing care and support services, you can get:

- Direct payments (https://www.nhs.uk/social-care-and-support/money-work-and-benefits/personal-budgets/) - allowing you to buy in and arrange help yourself instead of getting it directly from social services
- Disabled Facilities Grants (/disabled-facilities-grants) - which is money towards the costs of home adaptations to enable you to continue living there

If you're on a low income

You may be eligible for Universal Credit and could get help with housing costs (/housing-and-universal-credit).

If not, check if you're eligible for Housing Benefit (/housing-benefit) and Council Tax Reduction (/council-tax-reduction) from your local council.

Help if you're employed

You may be able to top up a low salary by claiming Universal Credit (/universal-credit).

You also might be able to get an Access to Work (/access-to-work) grant to pay for:

- special equipment, adaptations or support worker services to help you do things like answer the phone or go to meetings
- help getting to and from work
- mental health support
- communication support at a job interview (/guidance/apply-for-communication-support-at-a-job-interview-if-you-have-a-disability-or-health-condition-access-to-work) (for example, a British Sign Language interpreter or a lipspeaker)

VAT relief on certain goods and services

You do not have to pay VAT (/financial-help-disabled/vat-relief) on certain goods and services if they're just for your own use and you're disabled or have a long term illness.

Armed forces compensation

You may be able to get compensation (/financial-help-disabled/armed-forces-compensation) if you've been injured or disabled while serving in the armed forces.
